1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Continuation of 4(e) Other: Applicants amendment of Independent claim 11, from a method of manufacturing chocolates to a method of producing a mold plate former, producing a mold plate using the mold plate former and manufacturing chocolates does not read on the elected invention and thus the claims are no longer part of the elected invention (group II) and therefore cannot be examined. The amendment of 2/7/11 appears to attempt to convert the elected claims to a non-elected invention (group I). Therefore, none of the present claims read on the elected invention (group II). Examination cannot proceed until there are claims which read on the elected invention.
